

There is already too much governmental action in place serving private interests, leaving the public behind. I therefore want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private interests. I strongly oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation because permitting all media information to come from the same company (source) leaves the public no choice. On behalf of myself and the public in general, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.